

Good Practices of Women's Entrepreneurship in Local Communities in the Process of Disaster Reconstruction Philippine Experience

by

Ma. Delia M. Corsiga

Chief, Business Development Division

Department of Trade and Industry

Philippines

18 March 2015

Presentation Outline

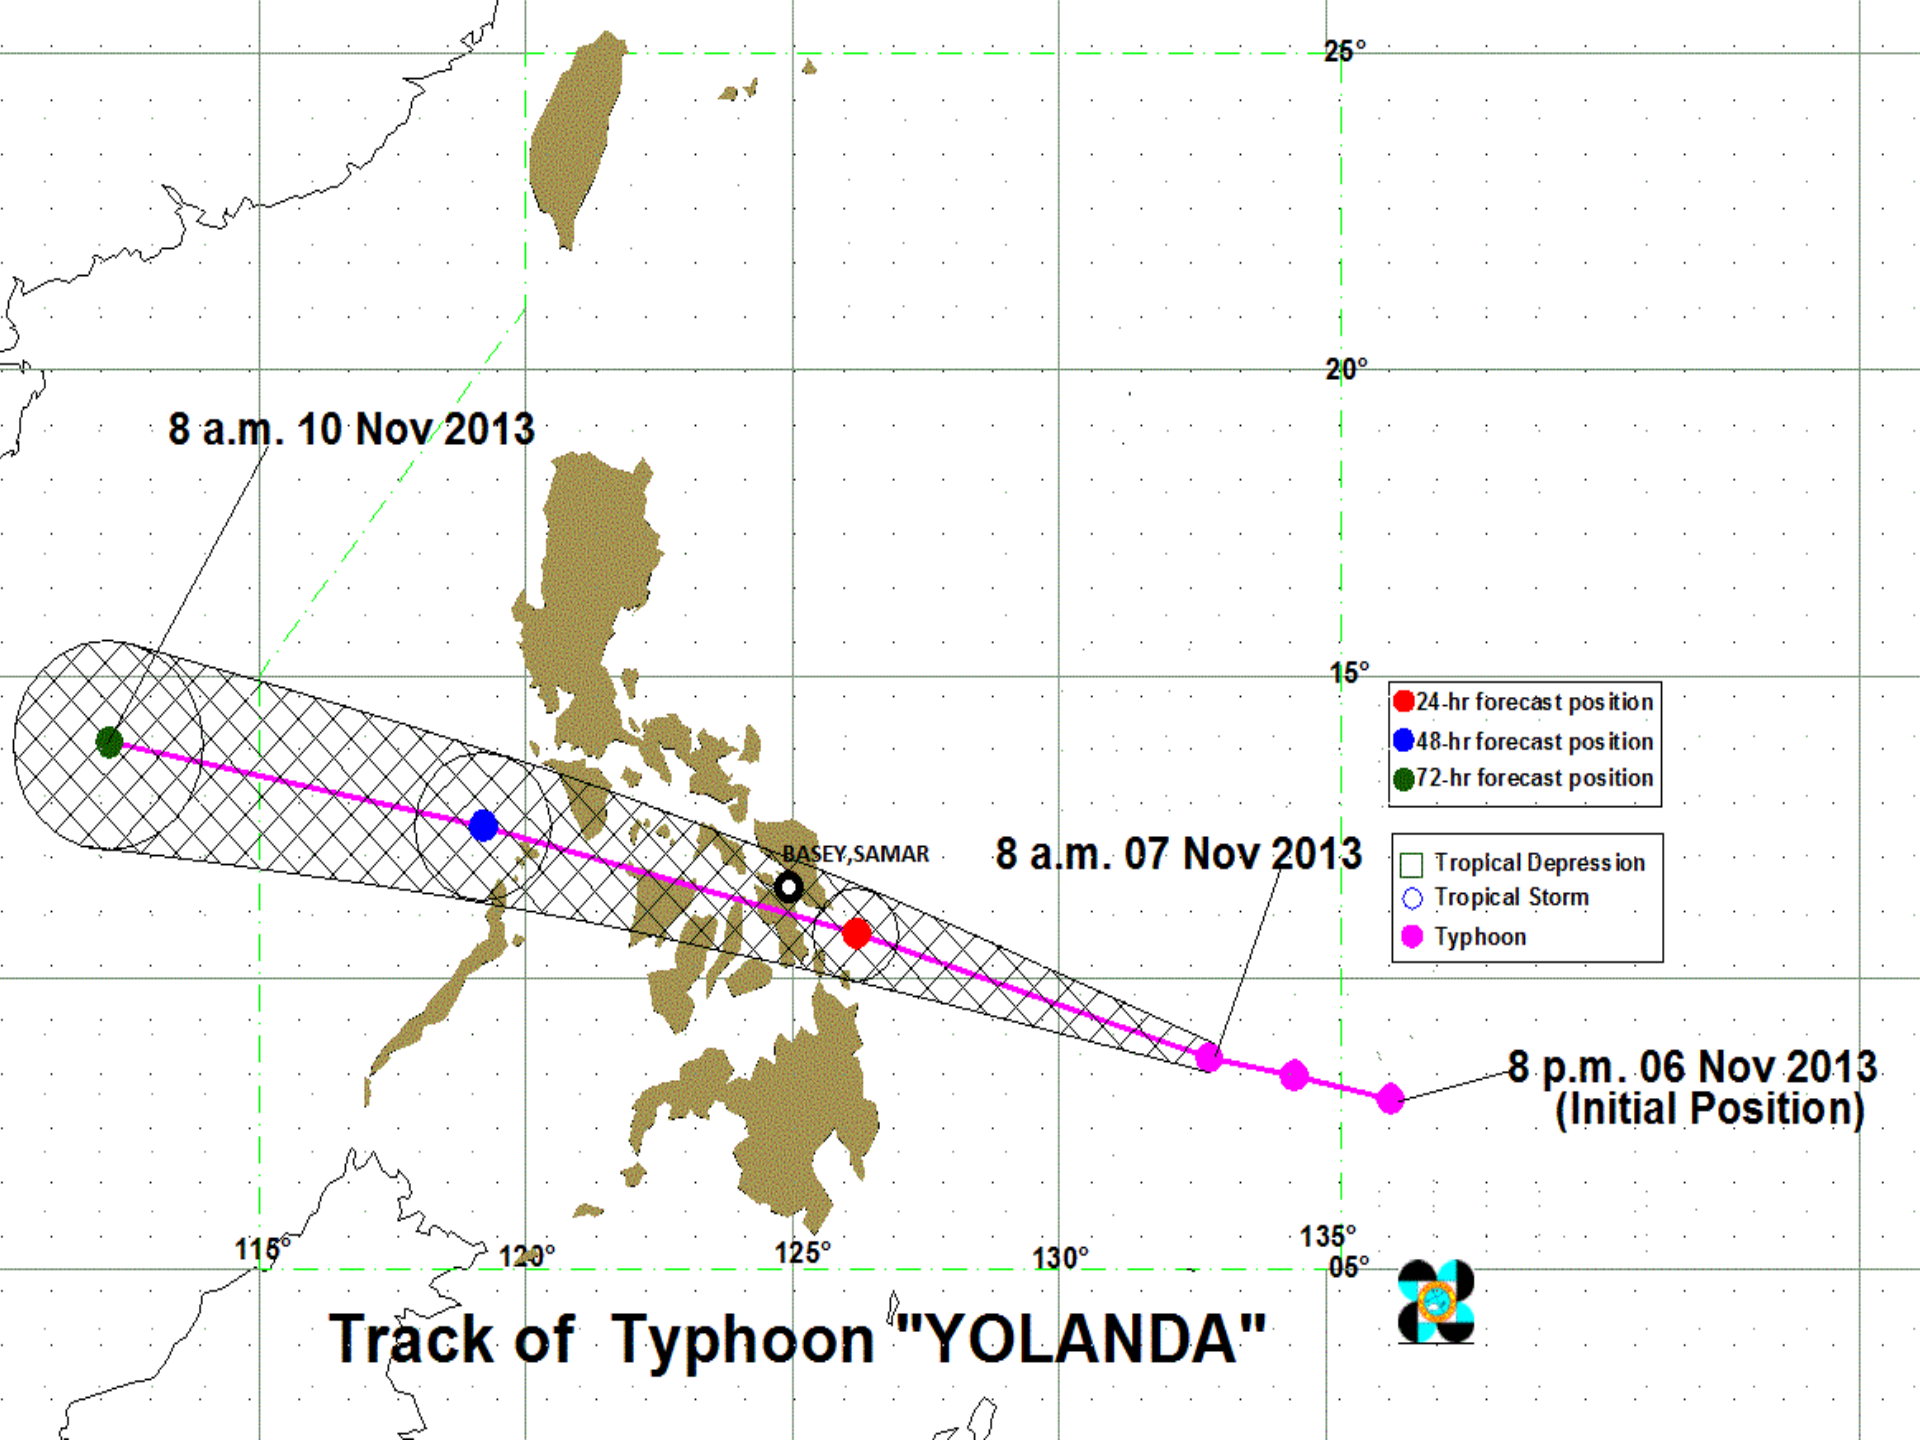

- ▶ Surviving Typhoon Haiyan (Local Name: Yolanda)
- ▶ Recovery and Rebuilding after the Disaster
- ▶ Moving on

Surviving Typhoon Yolanda (International Name: Haiyan)

» Typhoon Damages and Losses
Assessment (DaLA)
Post Disaster Needs Assessment
(PDNA)

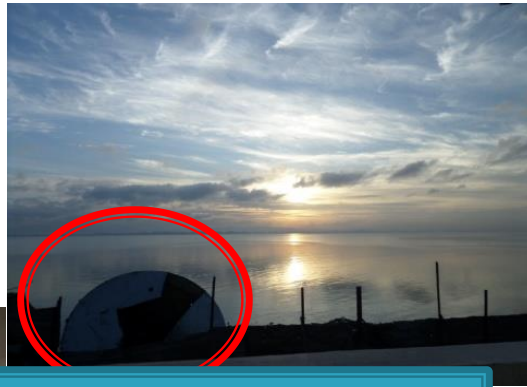

Highlights of Damages and Losses Sustained from Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines

- Areas affected:
 - 11 Provinces and 1 Highly Urbanized City (HUC) across 4 Regions
- Total Damages and Losses:
 - US$3B (PhP130B), 78% in Region 8
- Total Damages and Losses in the Productive Sector:
 - US$1.16B (PhP51B), 82% in Region 8
- Total Needs for Recovery:
 - US$2.4B (PhP106B), 56% in Region 8
- Total Needs for Recovery of Productive Sector:
 - US$23B, 78% in Region 8
- No. of affected population engaged in livelihood and business
 - Agriculture Sector: 1,335,231 farmers, fisherfolks
 - Industry, Trade, Services Sector 13,312 entrepreneurs
- About 50–60% were livelihood and businesses operated by women

I and my family are part of the DaLA Statistics . . .

My 86 yr old Dad & 81 yr old Mom pointing to their escape route from the surge & flood

The huge tank from across the bay that destroyed our fence

My room . . No more walls & roof, waah!

Our dining area . . only the floor is left, huhu

The Mango Tree . . where father survived!

SAURVIVORS ALL!

Damages sustained by the Productive Sector (business enterprises, livelihood) in Region 8 (Eastern Visayas): US$0.95B (Php 42B)

Banana Chips Processor
Tanauan, Leyte

Shell Craft Maker
Guiuan, Eastern Samar

Coconut Wine Producer
Tacloban City